London, April 27.—Sir Roger Casement, it is reported, has expressed beiet that the uprising in Ireland would be a failure on account of his capture.
His leadership he said, was necessary

Several newspapers support the

The Westminster Gazette advocates that he be disposed of by placing him in a lunatic saylum.
Sir Roger at present is occupying the cell in which Carl Hans Lody was held as a prisoner before his excention as a spy in the Tower of London in November, 1914. Lody was arrested in Killarney, near where Sir

It may be all very well for Canadian newspapers to long for a Cromwell or somebody to boss the job over in Britain, but some sort of a leader seems to be needed in Canada, if things are not allowed to drift like a things are not allowed to drift like a rudderless boat at sea. Then again if we went back to the time of Pitt and such historic statesmen, we might find that Britone were muddled and fud-dled much worse than in the present war. The good old days had nothing to brag about.
